

Refrigeration Services

Stellar's Refrigeration Services is one of the leading refrigeration contractors in the world for industrial ammonia, CO<sub>2</sub>, and other alternative refrigeration systems. The team designs, constructs and delivers high-quality packaged refrigeration units and operates a network of refrigeration and parts locations to serve a range of industries.

In 2003, Stellar's Refrigeration Services and Nestlé engineered what is believed to be the world's CO<sub>2</sub>/ammonia cascade refrigeration system at Nestlé's Jonesboro, Arkansas plant. The system set the new standard for industrial refrigeration and established Stellar as the clear leader in refrigeration contracting in the United States.
